Q & A's

Q: How do we get these bets?

A: Online, Email and upcoming APP

Q: What Format?

A On race-morning, qualifying members will be able to access a single list of bets scaled from 1.0% to 2.0% via the App and email and online.

Q: What Days?

A: The bets are sourced from Nationwide, Platinum E4, Melbourne and Sydney so all the normal Elite Racedays can have Elite-Edge bets. Saturdays, Wednesdays and Public Holidays.

Q: How many bets?

A: The strategy consistently produces around 300 bets per year.

Q: $189 per month is a bit steep.

A: Most Elite clients are paying $189 monthly already. If your membership configuration falls short of the $189, the extra $20 or $30 or so per week just a fraction of the extra value.

This is an investment in your punting future and $189 is a big discount to what six-month clients will be offered - if there are any spots left.

Q: Is this strategy taking the place of E4, Nat etc?

A: Those plans are still available and each are long-term winners in their own right. However, this blend of the four is unique - groundbreaking. It is the only plan Ric and I use.

Q: Is there a min term?

A: This is the best racing product in Australia and is for punters who are committed to win in the long term. Membership to Platinum's Elite Edge is a new contract with a six month minimum period. All Platinum Elite-Edge memberships start a new contract.
